From the exit interview [REDACTED]

25X1A9a

who left the Agency 12 March 1954:--

Officer was critical of BIC and BOC training after EOD. Saw no need or benefit from entering War College graduates into basic courses to prepare for War Plans assignments. Praised the War Plans Seminar as a good and worthwhile indoctrination for his job. Criticized BOC operation in that all students were lumped in one pot, and senior officers "got evaluated by a M/Sgt or equivalent." He resented a "chip-on-shoulder attitude toward detailed military personnel who ask questions about how certain training applies to their particular job." Also resented an instructor's opening statement: "If you can't take this training, you have no business being in CIA."
